LOCATION

Burnopfield is a village located to the south west of Newcastle. The village offers a range of local amenities and is well located for the commuter, with the A1(M) being approximately 5 miles away and both Newcastle and Durham have east coast main line train stations with direct links to Edinburgh and London. There are international airports at Newcastle and Teesside.

DESCRIPTION

The property is approached via a track from Busty Bank. The farmhouse has original features throughout including exposed beams to the ceilings and traditional shutters to the windows. From the farmyard, steps lead up to the entrance door which opens to a back kitchen with pantry. From the back kitchen a door opens to the main kitchen with a window overlooking the farm yard. The kitchen has a range of white shaker style units with tiled splash back and integrated oven and electric hob with extractor fan over, a fridge and under counter space for a washing machine. From the kitchen a door opens to a living room with a window providing views over the sunken private garden. The room has a large multifuel stove that provides heating and hot water for the property. A door opens from the living room to the inner hallway which has a door returning to the back kitchen and another to the second reception room which has stone flooring and a stone fireplace with brick décor and stone hearth. Views can be enjoyed over the garden from the window. A door opens to an entrance porch with the front door to the property.

Returning to the inner hallway, stairs rise to the first floor where there are three bedrooms. The larger two bedrooms both have cast iron fireplaces with the largest bedroom having useful fitted wardrobes, a window to the side of the property and roof light. The second bedroom also has a roof light along with a low level window and exposed beams adding to the character and charm of the room. The third bedroom also benefits from useful fitted storage and roof light. The family bathroom is fully tiled with a mosaic border and comprises a bath, WC and wash hand basin along with useful storage cupboard.

The mill is accessed from the property whilst also having external access. From the living room a door opens to a room housing the mill stones with a ladder down to the room below where the cogs are located. Within this room there is a door that leads out to the front garden of the property and another that leads through to a store. From the first floor landing, a door provides access to the space above the mill stones.

To the front of the property lies a lawned garden with mature shrubbery and beyond this is the mill pond which feeds into a launder to carry the water onto the mill wheel and on into the Leap Mill Burn.

The farm buildings comprise of a byre with loft above and a stable with slated roofs, a small pigsty/henhouse adjoins the main farmhouse with small outdoor enclosures. A further outbuilding lies next to the farm track providing storage space. A fuel store and poultry shed lie on the opposite side of the farmyard. There is also a three bay, timber framed hay shed under an asbestos roof.

The farm has three field parcels over Busty Bank road extending to 3.07 hectares (11.43 acres) which gently undulates and is classed as Grade 3 land, two of these field parcels do have a small area of woodland included. On the enclosed plan there are two areas highlighted in orange which are currently unregistered but have been used as part of the field parcels for many years. An overhead electricity cable and pylon runs through this block of grassland.

There is approximately 0.43 hectares (1.18 acres ) of grassland surrounding the farm track leading up to Leap Mill Farm.
